Herdsmen Award Criteria

All exhibitors of livestock, goats, and larger animals are eligible to be considered for this award. Experience in 4-H or age will not be a factor.

The Herdsmen Award selection committee will be determined by the Livestock Superintendent, and Fair Board President; prior to start of the Fair. Exhibitors and leaders will not be aware of the members of the selection committee. Observation will occur randomly, throughout the Fair, starting with the time of livestock entry.

The purpose of this award is to recognize a youth who consistently demonstrates excellence in the following areas. These are not necessarily listed in order of importance:

1. Personal behavior consistent with the values stated in the 4-H motto.
2. Compliance with livestock rules and regulations.
3. Knowledge of livestock being exhibited.
4. Care of livestock being exhibited.
5. Cooperation in maintenance of barn area.
6. Willingness to assist other exhibitors in care or protection of their livestock.
7. Rapport with and courtesy toward public in the livestock exhibit area.
8. Attentiveness to and respect for livestock superintendents, parents, and leaders

Hello! My name is Barbara Barga and I am the new 4-H Agent Associate in Worcester County. I come to Worcester County with 28 years of experience in Wicomico County. I grew up in the 4-H program in Ohio and started my career as a 4-H Agent in Bertie County, North Carolina.

4-H is my passion. Watching youth grow into leaders, teachers, scientists, inventors, and artists is what fuels my passion to grow the Worcester County program. If you are interested in volunteering for Worcester County 4-H or having your child participate in our program, contact me at bbarga@umd.edu or 410-632-1972.

4-H Grows Great Leaders! Grow your leadership skills with Worcester County 4-H.
